National Building Museum October 6-7-8

WHAT

A curated show and sale of wearable art benefitting the Smithsonian. Eighty renowned artists – returning designers, plus outstanding new exhibitors selected by top design schools – showcase their latest jewelry, leatherwork, one-of-a-kind accessories and cutting-edge couture. Experience the future of wearable art, and find limited-edition fashion and gifts for men and women.

Smithsonian Craft2Wear 2016 is produced by the Smithsonian Women's Committee. Proceeds support grants to Smithsonian programs and museums.

WHO

Masters of hand-crafted design. Artists previously juried into the Smithsonian Craft show are joined by cutting-edge designers trained or teaching at California College of the Arts, The Fashion Institute of Technology, Pratt Institute, School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Savannah School of Art and Design, and the DC Fashion Incubator.
